“Thank you for being so courteous and professional. This was my first experience with a professional auction company and I could not have chosen any better. Heritage and Alissa treated my items with respect, everything that was agreed upon was done and done, way beyond my expectations. Trust this auction company and especially Alissa Ford. They were both phenomenal.”

“As this was my first time working with an auction house, I had no idea what to expect. I was a little reserved, because I had found the information about Heritage Auctions on the internet. But from the first time Aviva Lehmann contacted me, she made me feel very comfortable about the idea of selling my painting through Heritage, and when I finally met her in person, she treated me like an old friend! Aviva guided me through each and every step of the selling process and made suggestions that she thought would benefit the sale of my painting. She had gained my complete trust, so following her advice was a no-brainer … and wow, did it pay off! Overall, this was an extraordinary experience, one that I would gladly do again! Thank you, Aviva, (and) thank you Heritage Auctions!”

“Alissa, you are a super auctioneer! I was on-line, watching for about 30 minutes before mine came up, and had no idea what was about to happen. It seemed there was a hesitation when bidding started, and I felt a little worried I had made the wrong decision in offering it at auction. My jaw dropped and I was stunned as the bidding started and kept going. I was shaken and could only close my eyes and bow my head over my laptop, realizing how this would affect my situation in such a positive way. My sincere thanks and appreciation for the professionalism in handling, promoting and selling my painting. I am so grateful to you, Alissa, and Meagen, and the Heritage team for a job well done!”

“From day one, the staff at Heritage Auctions have been wonderful to work with. Aviva Lehmann, the Director of American Art in the New York office, was kind and professional. Aviva’s personal touch – from coming to my home to pick up the painting, handling the paperwork and keeping in touch throughout the auction process – was transparent and reassuring. Meredith Meuwly, of the Appraisals Services Department, was quick and thorough in providing the retroactive appraisal needed for our records.

Of course, I wouldn’t hesitate in directing any family and friends to Heritage when auction services are needed. Aviva, along with anyone else I’ve dealt with there, made what could be an intimidating process completely pleasurable.”

“I would like to thank HA and Alissa Ford for helping me with the consignment process of my painting. My experience with HA, and especially Alissa, has been wonderful. All of my questions (and I had many), were patiently answered by Alissa. The information that was collected about my painting by Alissa with the help of Mr. Fenn and others is so fascinating. I am grateful to have learned more about the painting than I knew. I want to thank Alissa for keeping the facts of how the painting came into my possession in the article of Fine Art Connoisseur magazine. It was beautifully written and touches me deeply. Alissa and Heritage Auctions, thank you so much for your care of my painting, for your kindness in helping me through the process and the experience of your company and the excellent service. I am very pleased with the final sale of my painting.”
