“I am an auction buyer, having done business with most of the major auction houses in the United States, so I know a good auctioneer when I meet one, and so it was when I met Karen Rigdon, Director of Decorative Arts & Design at Heritage Auctions in Dallas. Karen makes her customers – whether they are buying or selling – feel that she is looking out for their best interests. She is forthright, honest and knowledgeable, qualities that are necessary for sustained success in the auction business. I always found Karen ready to discuss the value of a piece, its condition and rarity. These are the reasons why I have done business with Karen Rigdon over several years and will continue. She never disappoints.”

“I wanted to express my thanks to you and the Heritage Auctions team regarding my recent consignment and sale of a portion of my art collection. The entire process from initial contact to valuation, consignment, auction and settlement was handled professionally and with a personal touch.

“I have worked with other leading auction houses in the past and this was by far the easiest and most enjoyable consignment. I was impressed with your knowledge of design and art and the whole process was well executed. The photography and cataloging displayed the work well, the consignment terms were very reasonable and your personal involvement in preparing the works for sale was appreciated.

“I will definitely recommend Heritage to others and look forward to consigning and buying with you in the near future.”
